New Admirals of the American Navy.

Here are the new admirals of the American navy, who will hold the titles used on several occasions in the past by great commanders. For years the title has been in disuse, although Admiral Dewey was given the title after the battle of Manila.
The highest title in the American navy has been rear admiral. Now the higher designation is revived for the benefit of men who have earned it.

After the act of congress provided for the creation of the admirals the President and secretary of the navy collected, as it was expected they would, Rear Admirals Frank B.
Fletcher, commander of the Atlantic fleet; Thomas B. Howard, commander of the Pacific fleet, and Walter C.
Cowles, commander of the Asiatic fleet.

COURT RULES ED. ROB-ERTSON ON CITY TICKET

To the general election laws of the state as to other cities and towns and must be under the control of the county and state election boards; that since the general election laws for cities require that all candidates for office must file their notice or petition of candidacy with the county election board prior to the primary, then any candidate for a certain office, to be a legal candidate, must comply with this law.

Alting Not Legal Candidate.

C. C. Alting, not having complied with this requisite, was not, in the court's opinion, a legal candidate.

The board was directed to canvass the returns as to all legal candidates and certify the result as to the two receiving the highest vote.

The court further directed the county election board to print the ballots and conduct the election next Tuesday, as required by the Act of 1911.

The court did not pass upon the question as to whether officers for the board of education of the City of Guthrie and adjoining districts had to file with the county election board before they were legal candidates, that question not being before the court.

The county election board, in obedience to the court's decision, canvassed the returns and found that W. H.
Mitchell and Ed Robertson received the highest votes of any of the legal candidates, and certified that the four candidates receiving the highest votes for members of the school board were Mrs. Lowther, Dr. Hughes, Dwinnell and Brooks. The ballots were ordered printed accordingly.

ed either extension or either.
Mrs. Watson, wife of the commissioner, took the stand and testified how economically she had conducted the Watson household, and how heavy the expenses had been. She said Colonel Watson had been "stung" to the extent of $1,500 and $2,000 by gifts and loans, phony checks and other transactions.

E. C. Pitzer, formerly connected with the commission, testified relative to the order requiring a spur track at Joiner on the Stigling rail-

WIDOW OF SLAIN MAN CONFESSES

der of McElheny occurred with his wife at his home. Mrs. Hornbaker substantiated his statement. He says he has never had any liaison with Mrs.
McElheny and calls the statement that he gave her ground glass to mix in her husband's food a deliberate lie.

(By Associated Press.)

Paula, April 2.—Dr. J. W. Ferrell, a former coroner, testifying in the preliminary hearing of Roscoe Horn-baker, mail carrier of Louisburg, charged with the murder of Geo. Mc-Elheny, postmaster said that Horn-baker came to him on three separate mornings and asked if the investigation into the death of the postmaster could not be dropped. Last week Hornbaker admitted that he had certain letters Mrs. McElheny desired.

He said he had agreed to give them to her if Ferrell and the widow of the slain man would call for them. According to an agreement, Ferrell said, he accompanied Mrs. McElheny to Hornbaker's home. According to the witness Hornbaker said:

"Well, Maude, I know what you're after" and tossed her a package of letters.

Mrs. McElheny is expected to appear in court late this afternoon for the prosecution.

The crowd was so large it could not get into the court room.

Interest in the affair is intense and practically all business has been suspended and farmers for miles around are here attending the trial.
